CARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 19, 1863.

Gwners of steam vessels are invited to send to the Quartermaster General's Office tenders for their charter or sale.

Tenders should contain descriptions of the vessels, their dimensions, enrolled or registered tonnage, actual carrying capacity, material, whether coppered, whether side wheel or propellers, whether iron or copper fastened, size and power of engines and boilers; and should state the price at which they are offered for long or short charter, with the estimated value of the vessel in case of loss, or in case the Government should prefer to purchase instead of chartering.

Owners of steam vessels already in the service of the Quartermaster's Department are requested to make known to the Department any reduction in their present rates which they may be willing to grant, and also the price at which they will be willing to sell them.

All such tenders should be addressed to the Operator of the United States, at All such tenders should be addressed to the Quartermaster General of the United States, at Washington, and should be endersed "Proposals for charter or sale of steamers."

When received, they will be considered, and the Department will endeavor to reduce the heavy expense attending army transportation upon the ocean and tide-waters, by substituting, wherever it can do so, cheaper vessels of equal capacity for those now employed.

fellowing in the Baltimore Sun of this morning : Headquarters Middle Department, Eighth Army Corps. Office Provost Marshal, Baltimore, June 1, 1863 .- Messrs. Editors: An order was published in the evening edition of the Republican, also in the Sunday Telegraph of to-day, purporting to emanate from this office, in reference to the suppression of certain newspapers. No such order as thus published was issued. It is, perhaps, a misunderstanding, which is thus explained: I was directed by the Major General Commanding to notity the editors of some of the city papers that no "extracts" from the New York World, New York Express, Caucasian, Cincinnati Enquirer and Chicago Times would be permitted to be published in this Department, which was duly done; and tram this partment, which was duly done; and from this fact the mistake must have occurred. I therefore respectfully request this explanation be published.

The order to which Lient. Col. Fish refers, and which he says did not emanate from his office, embraced the prohibition of certain New York and western papers in this military department.

CAVALRY FOR SHIPPENSBURG .- Upwards of two hundred cavalry, belonging to three different Pennsylvania cavalry regiments which have been mustered out of the service, went to Shippensburg by rail yesterday morning, taking with them their horses and accountements. They would at once enter upon scouting duty down the valley.

Quartermaster Fitch, which has been en-camped in the vicinity of this place since Tuesday, received orders to repair to Carlisle yesterday, and accordingly got in motion for that point about 11 o'clock in the foreneon.
